To: Notary Division, Nevada Secretary of States Office

Please consider this a formal complaint against notary Gina Renee Rodriguez. I recently received a copy of my daughter's Brazilian passport application. Included in the packet was an Authorization for Unaccompanied Travel form, which is required when a minor child travels abroad with only one parent. The signature at the bottom of the page is not mine. On the day this was notarized, I was in Chicago, IL, attending a conference. This forgery has allowed my ex-wife to take our child out of the country illegally. I may be contacted at the address and phone numbers listed below and look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you,

Dear Mr. Quirk:

We have closed the complaint against the above-mentioned notary.

On March 19, 2004, the Secretary of State's office sent a letter requesting information from Ms. Rodriquez. On March 25, 2004 our letter was returned as "forwarding order expired". On March 25, 2004, Ms. Rodriquez's notary appointment was suspended. Ms. Rodriquez will not be able to renew her notary appointment until she responds to our letter.

If I can be of assistance, please contact me.

Respectfully,

DEAN HELLER
